CYS, a crisis intervention, and case coordination program, offer voluntary assistance, at no cost, to youth and their families in a school-based setting. CYS has a shared funding partnership with selected school districts in Harris County, the Pasadena Police Department, the Educational Services Division of the Harris County Juvenile Probation Department, and the City of Houston "My Brother's Keeper Program." The mission of the CYS Program is to improve the lives of youth and families through advocacy, education, and personal empowerment. The CYS served approximately 37,000 students during the year. Integrated Health Services Division

This program is based on a model that integrates the medical, behavioral health, and assessment services for DFPS children and families. A team of professionals works together in one location, the Youth Services Center, to treat the whole child. The medical health clinic partners with the McGovern Medical School at UTHealth to provide quality medical, dental, and behavioral health care to children that are in the care of DFPS and/or residing in the Kinder Emergency Shelter. The behavioral health component provides psychiatric care and referrals, peer support to parents and caregivers, and a nurturing parenting program. The Assessment component provides a complete assessment of children, ages 3-17, within 30 days of entering DFPS custody. Funds were used for COVID assistance and toys for the Murworth Lobby.
